Proceedings of the county court and other important news will appear in our next issue.
—Neal Evans, a young man living at Grand Junction was drowned in Wolf river last Saturday night. He was an employee of the I. C. R. R. and after the labors of the day went down to Wolf river fishing. The night was dark and by some means he stepped into the deep water. Being unable to swim he was drowned. His remains were recovered Sunday morning.
—Stinson Marble Works of Grand Junction is one of the oldest establishments of the kind in West Tennessee. They will always deal honestly and fairly with you. If you wish to know anything about the kind of work they do, or the quality of work they turnish, address Capt. Albert T. McNeal, of Bolivar; Judge Feltherton Holly Springs, Miss.; Edenton Bros. Macon, Tenn.; Sledge Bros., Coma, Miss.; Prof. Geo. G. Holmes, Covington, Tenn.; Col. Wm. Sanford, Covington, Tenn. These gentlemen can speak from experience.
—If Bolivar and Hardeman counties had one thing more than any other it is certainly a railroad through the center of the county from east to west. A line from a point on the Midland, say Whiteville, via the Insane Asylum and Bolivar to the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, would be of perpetual and incalculable benefit. It would give us 30 miles of track which would be assessed at about $20,000 per mile, thus increasing our taxable county wealth $600,000. It would bring capital and enterprise and factories that would be of greater aggregate value than the railroad and would immediately impart life to every industry and advance the value of our lands a hundred percent. Some day a railroad will run from the Midland via the Asylum to Bolivar. That is a necessity. It is only eleven miles to Whiteville from Bolivar. The grades are easy and cheap. Not a single deep cut or fill would be encountered. The asylum alone would furnish in passengers and freight traffic as much as a town of a thousand population, and Bolivar which is two and a half miles from the asylum would furnish 10,000 bales of cotton per annum besides heavy shipments of other produce, live stock, etc.
—Besides this we would get our coal for one half the present rate and our goods and supplies in the same proportion. We cannot afford to stand still. We must strike now for the prize is set before us. There are parties that will with proper encouragement undertake the project of completing a railroad from Whiteville to Henderson. We suggest that our citizens call a meeting and agitate the subject. We will die of dry rot unless we bear ourselves. Every thing is favorable. Let our people must act and see that our golden opportunity is not lost.

A RUINED HOME.

Our house is on fire! Our home is burning up! What cry so piercing to the soul! Fire, indeed, is terrible when it destroys inanimate things we love, but how much more terrible when it destroys the living tissues of the flesh! Fire in the blood, how great is its effect! Covering the fair skin with spots and blotches, twisting the limbs and joints with aches and pains, creating ulcers and running sores. Singeing the very roots of the hair and causing it to fall dead away. Cramping the functions of the liver and kidneys with internal swellings and sores. Disfiguring form and feature. Thank Heaven, in the midst of such fearful contemplation a quick cure is at hand. It is Botanic Blood Balm, made in the beautiful city of Atlanta, Ga. An illustrated "Book of Wonders" sent free by the Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga., is filled with most convincing proof of its remarkable merit.
—Robert Ward, Moxey, Ga., writes: "For twelve or fourteen years I have been a great sufferer from a terrible form of blood poison. My head, face and shoulders were covered with a mass of corruption, and finally the disease commenced eating away my skull bones. I became so horribly repulsive that for three years I absolutely refused to let people see me. I used large quantities of most noted blood remedies and applied to nearly all physicians near me, but my condition continued to grow worse, and all said that I must surely die. My bones became the seat of excruciating aches and pains; my nights were passed in misery; I was reduced in flesh and strength; my kidneys were terribly deranged, and life became a burden to me. I changed to see an advertisement of Botanic Blood Balm, (B. B. B.) and when eight or ten bottles had been used I was pronounced cured. I had been suffering from blood poisoning for years, and the scores of scars can now be seen on me, looking like a man who had been burned and then restored. My case was well known in the county."
—Levi Johnson, Belmont Station, Miss., writes "My ears and scalp were covered with sores and all my hair came out. I lost my appetite and became a mere skeleton. I am now taking B. B. B., and the sores are going away and my strength is coming back."
—A Safe Investment.
—Is one who is guaranteed to bring you satisfactory results, or in case of failure a return of purchase price. On this safe plan you can buy from our advertisement drug-store a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It is guaranteed to bring relief in every case, when used for any affection of Throat, Lungs, or Chest, such as Consumption, Inflammation of Lungs, Bronchitis, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Croup, etc. It is pleasant and agreeable to taste, and can always be depended upon. Trial bottles free at Savage & Emerson's Drug Store.
—Merit Wins.
—We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been handling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitten, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits.
—Savage & Emerson, Druggists.
—DON'T RUN THE RISK
—of losing your child by permitting Worms to work out manifestations. When a child fails to sleep well, is irritable, unnatural in its appetite and grinds its teeth, you have strong indications of Worms; the effective cure for this is Dr. A. C. Farnestock's Vermifuge. As your child grows in its body, use only save your child from its grave.
